

Dublin, capital of the Republic of Ireland, is on Ireland's east coast at the mouth of the River Liffey. Its historic buildings include Dublin Castle, dating to the 13th century, and the imposing St Patrick's Cathedral, founded in 1191.

City parks include landscaped St Stephen's Green and the huge Phoenix Park, home to Dublin Zoo. If you're a music lover you'll be in 7th heaven as Dublin has it all. It's rich musical heritage is a real point of pride for its locals, with many venues to visit you are spoilt for choice. Whether you're looking to visit the Irish rock and roll museum in the bustling Temple bar, or head across to the neighbourhood of Smithfield where you will find the traditional Irish pub 'Cobblestone', for some live Irish music every night of the week.

Dublin truly is a tourist dream, with the world famous Guinness Storehouse and Jameson distillery tours for those interested in a little tippie, and Dublin Castle and Dublin zoo for those family days out.
