

Breathe in the fresh sea air of the tranquil Norfolk coast, walk on unspoiled sand where the kids can build sandcastles, have a picnic, look for bird life and paddle in the shallow surf. You'll find huge expanses of honeyed beaches backed by marram and dunes. Or simply lay back, relax and watch the scanty clouds skipping across the big blue sky. Why not visit Cromer, Hunstanton, Great Yarmouth or Wells-next-the-sea to name just a few! Not only has Norfolk got great countryside and coast but is also home to so much more. Norfolk's uniqueness is incredibly important and precious – and that's why the county has always taken pride in treasuring its heritage with a wide range of museums and historical sites. From captivating castles and cathedrals, to splendid stately homes, myriad museums and medieval churches, there's an amazing heritage to discover here. If you're coming to Norfolk and want to experience the natural world, you just have to see the seals.
