Just go Road Trip

Italy, The Italian Lakes

Italy, The Italian Lakes

The Italian Lakes describe an area in the North of the country that comprise of a mixture of pre-alpine foothills and glacial lakes where Italy borders with Switzerland. There are four major lakes, Como, Lugano, Garda and Maggiore, these are surrounded by smaller satellite lakes. Higher up in the mountains there are numerous tarns trapped between the towering peaks of the Alps.

The area is characterised by beautiful cobbled villages, promenades lined with lime and Oleander trees and regal waterside villas painted in soft earthy tones. The town of Bellagio on Lake Como shows all these attributes to stunning effect. This is an area steeped in romance and beauty and whether you explore it on foot, by car or boat, each new vista brings picture postcard good looks.

Notable gardens to explore are on the twin islands of Isola Bella and Madre, created in the 17th century by the Borromeo family, and the gardens of Villa Monastero on Lake Como. On the shores of the smaller Lake Orta you will find the beautiful medieval village of Orta San Giulio. With its harmonious ensemble of cobbled streets, piazza, Convent and Island, it is pure Italian theatre.

If you feel like breathing in some high Alpine air, head over the border to the Swiss village of Capolago where you can catch a rack railway up to the 1700m peak of Monte Generoso. There are many walks that fan out from the summit including a full day trail to the hidden Valle di Muggio.

Places to visit

Villa Balbianello

A must see if you are going to Lake Como, this striking villa cascades down a rocky peninsula on the shores of the Lake and is only accessible by boat. Built in the late 16th Century the gardens are known for they colour palette which is limited to the red, green and white of the Italian flag. Arrive by boat from Sala Comacina.

Sentiero del Viadante

This two to three hour walk that follows the old mule track along the edge of the hillside from Varenna to Bellano on the shores of Lake Como, affords you spectacular views in return for your effort. Notable places to take a breather are the church in Gittana, the gorge in Bellano and the castle at Vezio.
