Spain, Madrid

Madrid is the financial and cultural hub for Spain, and much of Southern Europe.

There is a huge amount to see and do, as well as excellent nightlife in terms of bars, restaurants, clubs and entertainment.

As the area has been inhabited since Roman times, there are also plenty of historical sites to explore and enjoy. At the other extreme, you can also visit the Bernabéu stadium, home of Spanish football giant Real Madrid. This is usually popular with the younger members of the family, and many of the older ones!

For art lovers you are torn between the Prado Museum, with works from the 12th to 19th Centuries including Goya, Velasquez and Rubens, or you can go to the Reina Sofia Museum for art from the 20th Century and beyond. The Reina Sofia houses Picasso's most famous painting Guernica, as well as key works by artists such as Salvador Dali - it gets incredibly busy but is a crucial place to visit!

Places to visit

Retiro Park (Parque del Retiro)

This is a Beautiful and peaceful park great for a lovely relaxing stroll. This park is centred around a beautiful lake.

Address: : Between C. Alfonso XII and Avenida de Menendez Pelayo, Madrid, Spain

National Archeological Museum

This museum presents works dating mostly from Hispanic prehistory to the Modern Age, but it also includes some other cultural remains: Greek, Etruscan, Roman and various South American cultures.

Address: Serrano, 13, 28071 Madrid, Spain

Bar Museo Chicote

Hemingway found refuge here while dodging bullets during the Spanish Civil War. Grace Kelly, Frank Sinatra, and James Stewart sipped cocktails on the couch-like booths. In fact, the Museo Chicote has been attracting a celebrity clientele since its inception in 1931, making it the most famous cocktail bar in Madrid.

Address: Calle Gran Via, 12, 28013 Madrid, Spain
