Aberdeen

Aberdeen City and Shire has a lot to offer. From the unspoilt countryside, dramatic coastlines and crumbling castles to pristine beaches delectable food and drink and amazing wildlife all set amongst some of Scotland's most stunning scenery. Aberdeen's sloping golden beach overlooking the North Sea and iconic granite buildings that glint in the sunshine makes it one of Scotland's most striking cities.

Aberdeen is a port city in northeast Scotland, where the Dee and Don rivers meet the North Sea. With a booming offshore petroleum industry, the city is home to an international population. Its Aberdeen Maritime Museum tells the story of the city's long relationship with the sea. Admire the unique collection covering shipbuilding, fast sailing ships, fishing and port history.

Discover a land where majestic landscapes meet the sea and the flourishing Granite City boasts beautiful architecture and cultural gems. Aberdeen City and Shire is adored by the Royal Family, and is a region with a maritime heritage which offers lively events and a selection of thrilling activities and views of the busy harbour. From magnificent mountains in the Cairngorm National Park to beautiful beaches and coastlines, Aberdeen City and Shire is a vast area just waiting to be discovered. Lace up your hiking boots and explore the stunning region on foot, from its jaw-dropping scenery, wonderful wildlife and fascinating history.

Places to visit
