Coventry

Coventry

Coventry is a city and metropolitan borough in the centre of England. It was the capital of England more than once in the 15th century when the seat of Government was held in Coventry. Within an hour of London, Coventry and Warwickshire is the beating heart of the UK visitor economy. From Cathedrals and Castles to Shakespeare and Godiva, we have legends, stories and history that is unrivalled and unmatched.

Home to a unique selection of internationally renowned family friendly attractions, popular cafes, bars and quirky restaurants guaranteed to delight and captivate in equal measure.

People from Coventry are known as Coventrians, the most famous Coventrian probably being Lady Godiva, who is famed for her naked horse ride through the city nearly a thousand years ago.

The Coventry's most prominent landmark is St Michael's Cathedral, a modern cathedral built amongst the ruins of the former 14th century cathedral which was largely destroyed in the air raids.

Places to visit

Coventry Cathedral

Simply to spend time in Coventry Cathedral, which includes both the Ruins and the new building, is for many a transforming experience. The Cathedral is a physical expression of hope, of love, and of celebration - not solely for Christians, but for all citizens of Coventry and Warwickshire, and indeed the nation and wider world.

Address: Coventry Cathedral, 1 Hill Top, Coventry, CV1 5AB

The Coventry Music Museum

Take a visit the Coventry Music Museum and discover the vast array musical heritage it has to offer. From 50's Rock 'N' Roll to 90's this museum has collections from all over that will give you an interesting and informative visit.

Address: Unit 7, The Courtyard Rear of 74-80, Walsgrave Road, Coventry, CV2 4ED

Twisted Barrel Ale

Twisted Barrel Ale exploded onto the Coventry beer scene on 29th March 2014. After months of hard work developing a small selection of beers that would appeal to Coventry's patrons thirsting for our unique mix of modern and classical styles and methods we launched our beers at Coventry's number 1 bottle bar, Inspire, and it was a huge success.
