London

London is a diverse and exciting city with some of the world's best sights, attractions and activities. With so much to do, it's hard to narrow down the long list of reasons to visit, but below you'll find our top 10. You can't fail to be excited by London's amazing attractions. See the city from above on the London Eye; meet a celebrity at Madame Tussauds; examine the world's most precious treasures at the British Museum or come face-to-face with dinosaurs at the Natural History Museum.

London's famous skyline continues to evolve. There are plenty of places to view the iconic skyline along the river, but make sure you take in a panoramic view of London from up high at locations such as View from The Shard.

You're spoilt for choice when shopping in London; from the flagship stores on Oxford Street, to gifts and bric-a-brac at London's markets. Shop in Europe's largest urban shopping centre at Westfield Stratford, or visit an iconic department store such as Harrods.

London attracts the biggest sporting events in the world. See a match in London or take a tour of the capital's spectacular sporting venues, from the home of the English football team Wembley Stadium, to Lord's Cricket Ground or Wimbledon Lawn Tennis Museum.

You don't need to travel far to find green space in London. The capital is home to eight beautiful Royal Parks, including Hyde Park and Richmond Park. There's also Hampstead Heath, with amazing views over the city. Alternatively, visit one of London's peaceful gardens such as Kew or Chelsea Physic Garden. The Thames provides a stunning backdrop to many of the city's top tourist attractions. River bus services and river tours are great ways to beat the traffic and enjoy wonderful views. Don't forget London's canals as well, including Regent's Canal and Little Venice.

Places to visit
