Norfolk

Breathe in the fresh sea air of the tranquil Norfolk coast, walk on unspoiled sand where the kids can build sandcastles, have a picnic, look for bird life and paddle in the shallow surf. You'll find huge expanses of honeyed beaches backed by marram and dunes. Or simply lay back, relax and watch the scanty clouds skipping across the big blue sky. Why not visit Cromer, Hunstanton, Great Yarmouth or Wells-next-the-sea to name just a few!

Not only has Norfolk got great countryside and coast but is also home to so much more. Norfolk's uniqueness is incredibly important and precious - and that's why the county has always taken pride in treasuring its heritage with a wide range of museums and historical sites. From captivating castles and cathedrals, to splendid stately homes, myriad museums and medieval churches, there's an amazing heritage to discover here.

If you're coming to Norfolk and want to experience the natural world, you just have to see the seals. There's nothing better than getting this close to nature. The seals are very inquisitive and often pop up and swim around the boats which can usually sail close to the basking seals on the beach which gives a great opportunity for taking pictures.

For a different way to explore the gorgeous Norfolk countryside and unique towns take a trip on one of our fantastic heritage railways. Look out for special occasions and events, such as Christmas, Halloween and Easter.

Places to visit

Norfolk Broads

National Park, offers visitors an experience unlike any other, both on its rivers and lakes, and alongside them, on peaceful paths and cycle ways. Uniquely, it is the only National Park in the UK with a city in it!
