York

York is a walled city in northeast England that was founded by the ancient Romans and is the perfect holiday destination for couples, families and groups. Renowned for its exquisite architecture, tangle of quaint cobbled streets, iconic York Minster and wealth of visitor attractions.

Nowhere in northern England says 'medieval' quite like York, a city of extraordinary cultural and historical wealth that has lost little of its pre-industrial lustre. A magnificent circuit of 13th-century walls enclose a medieval spider's web of narrow streets. At its heart lies the immense, awe-inspiring York Minster, one of the most beautiful Gothic cathedrals in the world. York's long history and rich heritage is woven into virtually every brick and beam, and the modern, tourist-oriented city - with its myriad museums, restaurants, cafes and traditional pubs - is a carefully maintained heir to that heritage.

Places to visit

Barley Hall

Barley Hall is a stunning medieval house, once home to the Priors of Nostell and the Mayor of York. Until the 1980s the house was hidden under the relatively modern facade of a derelict office block and was only discovered when the building was going to be destroyed. Adult £6.00 Child £3.00

Address: 2 Coffee Yard, Off Stonegate, York, YO1 8AR

Tel: 01904 615505

York minster

Explore York's world-class cathedral with its medieval stained glass and stone masterpieces and foundations rooted in the nation's earliest history. York Minster's vast spaces come alive with the sanctity and tradition of worship and heavenly music, but you can also find quiet corners revealing great treasures, unexpected stories and human inspiration. What will you discover. Adults £10.00 Concessions £9.00

Address: Deangate, York, YO1 7HH
