

When visiting Cornwall you really are spoilt for choice on places to visit. As well as a breathtaking coastline scattered with picturesque coastal fishing villages. Situated in the south west of Britain and home to Lands End (most southerly point) Cornwall has both, northern and southern coastlines, each boasting an array of beautiful beaches and attractions. For all those aspiring surfers visit the north coast with Newquay and St Ives being the perfect locations. The south coast, dubbed the Cornish Riviera, is home to picturesque harbour villages such as Fowey and Falmouth. For a little history, drive along to the coastal town of Marazion, home to the magnificent St Michaels Mount.

A tidal island topped by a castle 400m off the coast that can be approached on foot, using a man made causeway between mid and low tide. Slightly in land the world famous Eden Project is a popular visitors attraction.
