Laon is often overlooked as a destination by visitors but this town is worth stopping to take a look and explore, full of art, history and culture. It has one of the oldest cathedrals in France dating back to the 12th century. The town centre has a new mini tram system recently installed to make visitors exploring more accessible.

Reims is the city of Coronations and Champagne. The jewel of the city, the Notre-Dame cathedral has been the place of coronation for 33 kings of France from 816 to 1825. Also not to be missed in the city is the Place Drouet-d'Erlon square with its lively cafes, shops and restaurants. Also known for its Champagne, there are tours available for you to visit the wineries and see where the champagne wines are grown and nurtured and the Champagne production method, then at the end of your tour you will have the option to sample the product.
