Belgium, Brussels

Brussels city is becoming a trendy spot for weekend getaways and holidays. It is famous for its chocolates and beers but there are many more attractions that bring people here.

It is a centre of European Culture and has been officially nicknamed "The European Village", it has almost 90 museums, beautiful parks, trendy restaurants and bars and plenty of places where you can take a fascinating walk.

There is a lot to learn about the history of Brussels, the architecture and the art of chocolate and beer. The public transport is easy to use making it hassle free to venture into the centre and enjoy the many attractions it has.

Places to visit

Belgian Centre of Comic Strip Art

This attraction is located in the heart of Brussels; The Comic Strip Art Museum has been honouring the creators and heroes of the 9th Art for more than 25 years. It has regularly renewed permanent exhibitions and a diverse programme of temporary exhibitions that enable visitors to discover countless aspects of Comic Art. A great place to visit with many photo opportunities.

Brussels Waffle Workshop

Why not pop along to a waffle workshop and prepare, bake and enjoy your own delicious Belgian waffles all in 90 minutes. You will have a short introduction, go through the recipe, split into teams and start cooking your creation. Everything needed is provided.

Chocolate Workshop & Tasting Tour

Combine sightseeing with the chocolate tasting and workshop experience. This 1h+ Brussels chocolate workshop Tour is a must do Brussels activity. The chocolate experts will share their wisdom and you will get to taste the most exquisite chocolate in a flavoured chocolate indulgence walk that will introduce you to the chocolate world and most importantly the cultural highlights of Brussels.
