

Glasgow is a port city on the river Clyde in Scotland's western lowlands. It is famed for its Victorian and Art Nouveau architecture thanks in part to the city's booming shipbuilding and trade links during the 18th-20th Century. Home to the Scottish National Opera, Scottish Ballet and the National Theatre of Scotland, it is a hub of culture with a thriving and eclectic music scene.

With an abundance of museums and galleries, there is something for all interests. From dinosaurs to Dali, from contemporary to Charles Rennie Mackintosh, you won't be short of inspiration and wonder.

Food and drink are available in all styles and for all budgets. You can dine your way around the world with cuisines from Asia, Mexico, Europe and Africa but don't forget to try traditional and regional specialities including game, beef, seafood, haggis and of course a cheeky wee dram to finish up.

Just an hour away from this cosmopolitan city is Loch Lomond. A tranquil spot with breath-taking views, it's the perfect getaway from the hustle and bustle of city life.
