

Things to Do in Liverpool Where to start? There's so much to do in Liverpool city region, the only problem might be deciding exactly what to do first. Cultural capital, and birthplace of The Beatles and UNESCO world heritage site, Liverpool has world-class attractions, a proud sporting history and beautiful coast and countryside - making it the perfect location for a UK city break.

Liverpool is a maritime city in northwest England, where the River Mersey meets the Irish Sea. Ferries cruise the waterfront, where the iconic mercantile buildings known as the "Three Graces" – Royal Liver Building, Cunard Building and Port of Liverpool Building – stand on the Pier Head. Liverpool's Leading Attractions, Beatles Liverpool, museums and galleries, our two Premiership football clubs, there are two beautiful cathedrals, Metropolitan and the Liverpool Cathedral to visit. Liverpool is officially the World Capital of Pop, with more Number One hits than any other city. And you can hear live music anywhere from a top arena to an intimate bar-room venue.
